

Worship Team Code of Ethics And General Guidelines

- 1) Anyone that is a part of the Worship Team must make a strong, consistent commitment to this fellowship and to the leadership of the church and this team and must be actively making efforts to continue to grow spiritually.
- 3) Musical Expertise - The musicians and vocalists need to be fairly skilled to follow a service and should continue to improve their craft by instruction and lessons.
- 4) Time Commitment - Practice sessions and Sunday Services are mandatory for all members of the worship team. Special services will be planned in a timely manner. It is your responsibility to communicate if you will be absent for either.
- 5) Family Support - It is very important for the team member's family to be supportive with the necessary time commitment and to support that person's involvement in ministry.

I will conduct myself in a manner that does not bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and I understand that this also includes:

1. No illegal drugs.
2. No illicit sexual activity or moral impurity including adultery, pornography, or improper physical contact with others.
3. Refraining from the Abuse of alcohol in public or private.
4. In consideration of I Thessalonians 5:22 ("reject every kind of evil") I will abstain from all appearances of evil. (Colossians 3:5-17)

I will support the church with my tithes. Malachi 3:10

Weekly practice sessions - All team members are required to attend the weekly practice sessions. If you are unable to attend, you need to contact the Worship Team leader. Missing practice should be the exception and not the rule. If you are unable to attend a practice, it is up to you to find out what was covered and if there were any announcements that you missed. Practice involves many aspects. Praying together, worshipping together, teaching, discussing issues, fellowship, as well as the actual practice of music. Each aspect is important to the whole in binding us together and unifying us as a team, with the same focus and vision.

I will refrain from participation in gossip, murmuring, and complaining about church leaders and policies. I will address my concerns to the appropriate authorities in a civil and Christ-like manner. Matt. 18, I Corinthians 1:10, II Corinthians 12:20.

Being involved in other ministries is a blessing, but the involvement on the Adult worship team will always be a priority.
